The core team in itself comprised of Pardeep Kaur, Kaldip Kaur, Kashminder Kaur, Manpreet Kaur, Sharan Kaur, Rengwir Kaur & Manjit Kaur (Spore) as our mentor Bhenji. The team was also supported by the able young Sewadars team of Lakhvinder Singh, Arvinjit Singh, Rakhpreet Kaur & Saheb Singh.

And the most amazing support rendered by the Mighties BhenJis and VeerJis and the Cool Khalsa leads (JCs team), to allow us to execute the program for the Mighties.

11.4.1 Mighties Workbooks & Sewadars Guide

The overall Mighties programme journey, the focus for the week with daily topics - was laid out in the Mighties Sewadars Guide and also the Mighties Workbooks – made available to the Mighties Sewadars / Speakers and participants respectively. Both are intended to be used as a reference for the year, beyond the Samelan. For the Bachey, there is much to read and activities to be done; for the Sewadars, beyond serving as a key reference in the Samelan, the content can also be re-used for any mini samelan / satsangs.

11.4.2 Programme Layout & Speakers preparations

The Gian Ka Saagar Speakers had daily discussions – where the team met, discussed and shared views on the topic for the day, guided by the writeup, guide notes and Saakhis in the Sewadars Guide.... to prepare ourselves to reach out to the Bachey. The Speakers were rotated across the classes each day – so they could reach out to a different audience each day and the Bachey also received a different flavour of speakers each day.

IPS – Kirtan and parchar, catered to our younger hearts was conducted in the shota darbar.

- The Bachey were also gifted with their Sikhi Box

11.5 Nikke Khalsa:

The Nikke Khalsa program was oordinated wholly by the Nikke parents sewadars. The Nikke Khalsey held their own salami near their area where the salami sewadars would ensure the program was customised to fit our younger participants. They also had their own morning IPS sessions, again, suited to their age. Having their own programs enabled our Nikke Khalsey to reap the best benefits of the Samelan.

Other activities held were story reading, bubbles play, water play, ice cream making, and other child friendly activities. The team of sewadars are highly dedicated and ensured the program ran without a hitch.

With regards to participation and staying-in mothers with their Nikke Khalsey, the program saw a increase as the dorm was filled with mothers and their young ones.

11.6 Attendance:

About 800 participants and 300 sewadars attended the 53rd Annual Gurmat Parchar Samelan

11.7 Langgar:

Preparation in terms of cutting and peeling was championed by a group of dedicated sewadars, many of which were local sewadars. Cooking went on as per schedule and participants and sewadars were grateful for the meals. Milo was said to be too sweet. However, at times, there weren’t enough sewadars to help with the washing of pandey, so others stepped in, naturally. The langgar organizational team ensured the jathas on duty performed their sewa in an orderly fashion. Much teaching took place as jathas were guided on how to serve and run a langgar with a large crowd.

11.8 Utilities

The cleanliness of the entire premises was championed by the ever dedicated utilities teams. Not only were the toilets and washrooms kept clean but the dorms and darbar was also cleaned. Participants were also responsible for the cleanliness of their own dorms.

11.9 Secretariat

The secretariat team was in charge of the registration (before and during the course of the Samelan), donations and daswand, dispensing of funds when needed for purchases/payments , keeping of valuables, classroom/venue organization, preparation and putting up of signs, walkies systems, complains and parents dealing... and others.

To help improve the samelan, daily reports from each department are to be sent in to the secretariat as well.

11.10 Logistics

Running any samelan requires a lot of electricity, water and general logistics. The Samelan logistics team did their best to ensure a safe and working environment for the participants. There were challenges with the extreme heat or the equally extreme downpour. All in, the samelan grounds were safe, functional and comfortable. Also worth noting the dedication of the logistics team as work started weeks before and they were also the last to leave the site.

11.11 Darbar Sahib

The darbar sahib team took care of both the main darbar sahib and the shota darbar. In the main darbar, the team is incharge of ensuring daily parkash, asa ki vaar and nitnem takes place. Also, to ensure degh is prepared on time. Cleanliness of the darbar, announcements, timeliness of programs and timeliness of the jathas/parcharaks was also looked after. The jathas on duty were also guided as to the sewa they did in the darbar among which was, path, kirtan, chaur sewa, degh sewa, shoes sewa, and ensuring the general cleanliness of darbar sahib.

In the shota darbar, while there was a sewadar assigned, much of the management was taken on by the Mighties team of sewadars. Mighties team has requested for more help with the darbar sahib and the committee will do its best of ensure they get the help they need.

11.12 Medical Bay

The team of doctors, nurses and pharmacist provided the participants and sewadars with constant care and medical services. From simple aches to blood pressure and the need for hydration. The sanggat is lucky to have such dedicated sewadars.

This samelan we saw not only doctor and nurses, but also a dentist with a whole dental program for the mighties kids and also a teeth cleaning sewa. Our physiotherapist also provided members of the sanggat with help with our aches and pains, and conducted a talk/session on back related care.

The medical bay team not only kept us well, nursed our injuries and alleviated our worries, they also kept us hydrated with the water stand and the “Limau Asam” beverage available outside the medical bay.

11.13 Media

The media team was in charge of recording and sharing the events at the Samelan with the world. This included photographs, daily videos and livestreaming of the kirtan programs at the main darbar sahib. Mighty Khalsa and Nikke Khalsa have requested for more media coverage of their programs and screening of the daily videos in the mighties darbar too.

11.14 Composting

The Khalsa Land Committee championed a new program, i.e. composting. All food waste was kept in a different container in the langgar and was sent for composting daily. A great effort which helps us reduce our carbon footprint.

11.15 Visit from Officials

YB Gobind Singh Deo , YB Lee (KKB Assemblywoman) and YB Ganabatirau graced our Samelan. YB Gobind Singh addressed the sanggat in the darbar sahib, and the participants found him to be very inspiring. Sabha arranged a bus with a minimal charge from Gurdwara Sahib Titiwangsa to Gurdwara Sahib Tanah Rata on 27 January 2017. Around 40 participants took the bus. There were 82 participants in total from all over Malaysia. The participants were 18 years old and above (Post SPM).

The Fellowship organizing team comprised of sewadars with great ideas. This year there were many new activities introduced. They were mainly focused on the development of young minds with a strong moral compass. This was achieved by tying the message and activities back to Sikhi teaching and ensuring participants were well engaged in the parchar and darbar sahib program. Participants were seen to relish the kirtan sessions held during the evenings (Rehraas). The lively kirtan in the morning after their Japji Sahib also helped wake up and prepare the participants for their long and fruitful day. The morning Bhangra Aerobics led by our very famous Shavind was also an activity that was looked forward to by all.

The camp kicked off with an ice breaking session led by Satpal Singh and Serjit Singh (Sanjay Veer Ji). Below are some of the interesting topics

- Relationship presented by Sanjay Veer Ji
- Sewa presented by Sanjay Veer Ji
- Four Phases of Life presented by Sanjay Veer ji

The other focus of fellowship camp was camaraderie. It is of paramount importance that youth are able to foster friendships and relationships with all. Fellowship camp provides an avenue for such to take place. And what better way to foster friendships than by way of group sports and activities. Biji Biji team organized the best Amazing Race ever. Participants were grouped and given clues to complete the race which were mainly focused on recycling waste products. This made a great impact on all the participants to appreciate nature and to come up with creative ways for recycling. The Biji Biji team also shared their success stories and encouraged entrepreneurship among youths. The response was remarkable.

As for lodging, the female participants stayed in the rooms on the ground floor while the male participants were housed in the darbar sahib. Much of the bedding was supplied by Gurdwara Sahib Tanah Rata for which we are very grateful.

All in all, it was a national holiday well spent among old friends, new friends and with the sanggat of the Guru.

The participants are mainly youths and each session is attended by about 20 – 25. The focus is Naam Simran and Saadhna and they maintain strict discipline as to no phone and no talking for the duration of the camp. It is good to note our Sikh youths getting involved in religious and spiritual experiences.

3.4 Sikh Youths (Gurbani Naad) held a two day camp from 2 to 3 Sept. An Inspiration Session (IPS) was held at Gurdwara Sahib Rasa with local Sangat.

3.5 Gurmat Parchaar Annual Samelan was held from Sun 18 to Sat 24 December. Preparations started months before the commencement – esp for the raised cemented platforms for Darbaar Sahib, Dorms for girls and boys (two each). These proved to be of great help for a smoother surface and avoided rain-water into the dorms and Darbaar Sahib. Once again, Khalsa Land was turned into a “Tent City” with glittering lights. Letters to the local authorities were given (Police, Bomba, Hospital, Kementerian Kesihatan, Syabas, Alam Flora, Adun, YB Lee).

It was a great Opening and inspiring IPS and lectures. Amrit Sanchar was held on Friday, with 26 of them joining the Khalsa Panth and all were first timers. The highlight of the samelan was the KAMPUNG Amazing Race, which was organised by the youths led by Veer Sandeep Singh. The Miri Piri participants were divided into groups and had tasks to carry out in order to win the game. The Miri Piri had so much fun although they were exhausted.

On the other Hand, a tele match was organised for the mighties by penji Premjit, Bhagwant, Gurpinder, Veer Avtar & Prithipal. The kids had an awesome time playing fun games.

The final day ended with lunch, after the games, followed by gotong royong and participants left the grounds by about 3pm. We take this opportunity to thank the Gurdwara committee and sanggat of Changkat for all their support and sewa rendered for all the 3 days.

11 – SNSM Perak TURBAN BOOTH 30.4.17 at the Perak State VESAKHI OPEN HOUSE in Kampar

This time again in 2017, the state government thru YB Keshvinder Singh invited SNSM Perak to take part in this event. SNSM Perak, represented by Penji Premjit attended the organising team meetings with other Perak NGOs and Gurdwaras from all over Perak.

Due to popular demand, SNSM Perak again decided to put up the Turban Booth with same objectives as stated before for the 2016 open house. However, the location of the open house was this time in Kampar.

Once again the booth/tent was colourfully decorated with multi colours depicting the colours of turbans. The event began at 2 pm and people from all walks of life came to tie turbans. Our volunteers and sewadars Veer Avtar, Sandeep, Daaljit, Harinder, Kuldip, and penji Swaran, Gurpinder, Premjit, Jaspreet and many more came to help out with the sewa at the booth.

The booth was visited by the Perak MB, Dato Dr. Zambry Kadir and he was amazed to see the various types of turbans being tied. He too agreed that the Turban is a respectful “item” of a person may it be a Muslim or a Sikh.

All the turbans were tied off in the 4 hours and the event ended at around 5.30pm

We would like to thank WAHEGURU for his Kirpa for blessing us with this SEWA.

We want to thank all the Sewadars who sacrificed their time and committed themselves to join in the SEWA.

We want to thank all the Gurdwara Parbandhaks and sanggat for all their support and sewa at all the events organised at their respective Gurdwaras.
